St. James's, February 12. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to his Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Midhurſt in the County of Suſſex, preſented to his Majeſty by John Forteſcue-Aland, Eſq; Sollicitor-General to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen Owners of Tyn Lands and Tyn Bounds Adventurers for Tyn, Tynners and others concern'd in Tyn in the County of Cornwal; preſented to his Majeſty by Hugh Boſcawen, Eſq; Comptroller of the Houſhold, and Lord-Warden of the Stanneries of Cornwall.

Both which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

St. James's, Feb. 12. An humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen Owners of Tyn Lands and Tyn Bounds Adventurers for Tyn, Tynners and others concern'd in Tyn in the County of Cornwall, was this Day preſented to his Royal Highneſs the Prince by Hugh Boſcawen, Eſq; Comptroller of the Houſhold, and Lord-Warden of the Stanneries of Cornwall.

Lisbon, Feb. 8. The 20th of laſt Month being the Day appointed for returning Thanks to God for his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Britiſh Throne, was celebrated by Mr. Worſeley his Majeſty's Envoy at this Court, with great Magnificence. All the Factory and the Captains of the Britiſh Ships in Port were invited to a ſplendid Dinner; and the Factory having ſupplied all thoſe Ships with Powder for the occaſion, they fired a Round at every publick Health that was named, for which a Signal was made to the Ships from the Envoy's Houſe. At Night there was a noble Entertainment and a Ball for the Ladies. On the 5th Inſtant, the Portugueſe Fleet, conſiſting of about 20 Sail, under Convoy of one Man of War, put to Sea for Braſil. The Son of M. Orry, who has had the chief Direction of the Finances of Spain, has been ſome Days at this Court Incognito.

Vienna, Jan. 30. M. Belchowitz, one of the Emperor's Privy-Council, and others who had been employed in the Adminiſtration of the Government of Bavaria, are arrived here from Munich, which Place they left on the 18th Inſtant; the Imperial Garriſon having marched out, and the Bavarians taken Poſſeſſion of it the ſame Day. The Scheme of a Bank which the Emperour has eſtabliſhed on the Fund of his Revenues, is made publick here, and ſent to be publiſhed likewiſe in the other chief Towns of his Hereditary Dominions. The 24th a Courier arrived from Venice, with Diſpatches of the 12th Inſtant, adviſing that Sig. Zane and Moroſini were preparing their Equipages with all Diligence, in order to ſet out for this Court, in the Quality of Ambaſſadors Extraordinary from that Republick, for congratulating the Emperor on his Acceſſion to the Imperial Dignity, and for other Affairs.

Stockholm, Jan. 15. Yeſterday the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe-Caſſel made his Entry into this Place. His Highneſs was firſt met in the Morning at an Houſe about three Leagues off by the Counts Reenſtierna and Teſſin, two Senators, where he took a Breakfaſt; and about one in the Afternoon he arrived at the City Gate, where he was received by the young Duke of Holſtein, accompanied by his Governour Count Horn and the other Senators who were in Town, attended by ſix of the King's Coaches each with ſix Horſes, together with moſt of the Officers of the Court. After ſome Compliments the Prince was Conducted into the firſt Coach of State, where the young Duke of Holſtein ſat on his Left Hand, Count Stromberg Lord Treaſurer and Count Horn ſitting overagainſt them: Three of the King's Coaches, with the under Marſhal of the Court, the chief Maſter of the Ceremonies, and the Senators, came firſt; then the Coach wherein ſat the Prince, followed by the reſt of the King's Coaches, with ſeveral others of the Nobility which went alſo to meet his Highneſs; and all proceeded thr ugh the Town to the Lodgings prepared for him in Count Oxenſtierna's Houſe, where as ſoon as he had alighted Forty Cannon were twice Diſcharged from ſeveral places of the Town; the King's Guards which were drawn up near the Houſe gave him two Vollies, and the City Militia-Horſe who were alſo in Arms on this occaſion did the like; but it happened to be a very rainy Day which made the whole Appearance leſs ſplendid than it would otherwiſe have been. After the Duke of Holſtein and the Senators had ſtaid with the Prince about half an Hour, they took their leave and went to the Palace which almoſt joins to Count Oxenſtierna's Houſe. At ſix a Clock the Prince had an Audience of the Queen Grand-Mother, who introduced him to the Princeſs Royal in her Bed-Chamber; and after about an Hour's Converſation there, they all returned to the Queen's Apartment and ſupped together: The Duke of Holſtein was at Table, and 'twas obſerved that he ſat above the Prince, as being a Soveraign. The Prince had a very narrow eſcape at Sea from the Danes; two of whoſe large Frigates chaced the Ship he came in for ſome Leagues, and gained ſo faſt of her, that had ſhe had two Leagues more to run when ſhe entred Carlſhaven, 'tis reckoned they had certainly taken her: They forced another Ship, in which was moſt of the Prince's Baggage, to ſave her ſelf by venturing in among the Rocks.

Hambourg, Feb. 15. 'Tis adviſed from Berlin, that the King of Pruſſia being returned thither from Oranienbourg, held frequent Councils; and that all Diligence was uſed in the Preparations for an Army of 30000 Men to take the Field early in the Spring; they are to be commanded by the Prince of Anhalt Deſſau, and 'tis ſaid are to rendezvous between Swedt and Prenſlow: The Pruſſian Gens d' Armes are to make the Campaign; as is alſo the Regiment of Guards, which is to paſs in Review before his Majeſty at Brandenbourg. Letters from Stralſund give an Account, that the King of Sweden has made an Agreement with Shipwrights of that Place, for building four Men of War from fifty to ſixty Guns each, and ſix Frigates from twenty to thirty Guns each, which are conſtantly to cruiſe on the Coaſt of Pomerania, in Conjunction with four or five more under the Command of Admiral Heuke, to protect the Commerce and Navigation of thoſe Parts.

Hague, Feb 19. M. Duyvenvoorde, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from this State to the King of Great Britain, and Count Effern Miniſter of the Elector Palatine, ſet out from hence this Morning, in order to Embark for England. The States of Holland and Weſt-Friſeland, who adjourned the 16th Inſtant, will meet again to Morrow. The Bavarian Miniſter reſiding here, has notified to Baron Heems the Emperor's Envoy, that the Elector his Maſter is preparing to leave France very ſpeedily, in order to return to Munich. Some Advices ſay the Elector of Cologne has ordered three Regiments to march to take Poſſeſſion of Bonn, in which there are at preſent two Battallions of the Forces of the Circle of Weſtphalia, and but one Battallion of Dutch.

St. James's, Feb. 11. This Day Count Gazola, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Parma, had a private Audience of his Majeſty, to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and
